If the host Saskia Thuot has a tip to give to the thousands of visitors to Expo Habitat, it is time to take their time. The 37th edition of the traditional salon will be held from February 14 to 17 at the Sherbrooke Exhibition Center.

With 60,000 square feet of space, the building of the Plateau Saint-Joseph will welcome 132 exhibitors, including 30 new ones who will present innovative products and services related to construction and renovation, it was announced on Tuesday. press conference.

“It’s time to talk to exhibitors, ask questions to get the projects right,” says Thuot, who is known for her decorating programs and communicative energy. “Not for nothing that the theme of the show is Good ... at home! “

“It’s worth taking your time and going around twice if you have to!”

Several new products will be presented this year at the show, says Sylvain Mathieu, executive director of the APCHQ – Estrie region and promoter of the event. Thus, a micro-dwelling can be visited, it will be possible to have a drink in a bar designed in traditional timber and barn wood, not to mention several other attractions, including the place of conferences and three rooms with unique decor.

Another novelty for this 37th edition, tickets can be purchased online on expohabitat. com. “Therefore, finished the queues at the counter and other disadvantages. Visitors will be able to present their ticket electronically or printed directly at the entrance, “he says.

“For a third year, and in order to recognize the work of our exhibitors, a jury will award various” coup de coeur “awards to those who meet criteria of quality, originality and impeccable customer service. ”

Several designers of machined modular homes and cottages, specialists in exterior landscaping to do, among other things, the restoration or installation of pavers, dry stone walls, awnings and rubber coverings, will be gathered on place, adds Mathieu. “Also, everything for renovation with durable products such as epoxy, permanent roofs, long-lasting exterior paints.”

“New storage concepts, electric fence and gate installers, integrated furniture manufacturers with software-based design. Since the exercise had worked so well last year, we will again have a mystery jury that will determine favorite prices according to pre-established criteria. We will know the winners on Friday at 9pm at the bar framing which is located in the fair route. ”

The winners will be unveiled during the evening of the exhibitors, Friday, February 15, explains for its part Alain Patry, president of the APCHQ- Estrie region. Conferences will cover a variety of topics, such as Home Stay !, Deco 2019 influences, home insulation, and more.

During the show, each visitor will have the chance to win $ 10,500 in prizes for this edition! Two lucky people will win one of the following prizes: a $ 5,000 travel credit and a shopping tour at participating exhibitors.

Finally, Sylvain Mathieu emphasizes that the Sherbrooke Fair Center meets the needs of his organization, while we are talking about its recent expansion. “We have a waiting list of exhibitors wanting a booth, but I like it better than having empty spaces,” he says.
